

WE'RE STILL HIRING!

Internship Social Media & Community Management Spanish Market (m/w/d)

Did you know that every 4th German already knows Just Spices? With our innovative spice blends, we have already shaken up the e-commerce as well as food retail in the last 6 years. But we want even more, our vision: Make every dish tasty.

On our journey from a small Düsseldorf start up to a strong European spice e-commerce company, there has always been the one crucial secret ingredient: A motivated, happy and incredibly strong team.

Join us on the journey & become part of our Just Spices Family.

YOUR ROLE:

- You will manage our Spanish community on all social networks and engage with our followers and answer their questions
- You will be co-responsible for the content planning
- You will create independently postings and supervise new product launches
- You will research new social media trends and implement them on our Spanish social channels (e. g. Instagram, Facebook, Pinterest & TikTok)

YOUR PROFILE:

- You are studying in the field of media communication, marketing, PR or similar and are available to work full-time
- You speak Spanish (Castellano) at native level (C2 level) and have a good level of English (B2 level), additional German skills would be a great advantage
- You can identify with the Just Spices brand and have a keen sense for food and lifestyle trends as well as a great passion for social media
- You love to learn more about new social media trends
- You are on Instagram etc. every day and love good content - in the feed or in the Instagram stories
- You are a structured person with good communication skills

OUR VALUES

*This is what our values stand for:
Family, Joy, Courage, Passion, Pride and Entrepreneurship*

- Training skills instead of climbing rungs: You are at the center. It's about you as a person & how you can grow a little bit more every day. We support you every step of the way with internal training, a mentoring program and continuing education.
- We don't hesitate to dive straight into cold water: you are fully involved from day ONE. As part of our big team, you take on a lot of responsibility right from the start. The water may be cold, but we have warm towels ready for you at all times.
- Colorful, not uniform: Come as you feel comfortable: from blazers to flip flops, we accept and welcome everything. We feel it's really important for everyone to just be who they really are!
- We proudly fit every start-up cliché: fruit basket, drinks, muesli... but instead of football we prefer to play a round of table tennis

Best of all, with our weekly breakfasts, regular team events, and extensive onboarding, we'll get you into our Just Spices family super fast!
